Morane Kerek

Board of Trustees

Morane Kerek rejoined the Board of Trustees of The Colorado Springs School in June 2026, having previously served on the Board from 2013 to 2019. She and her husband, Mike, are the parents of two CSS graduates, Leggatt ’20 and Shively ’22.

Morane is the Chief Financial Officer of a family office, where she oversees financial operations and long-range planning. Previously, she served as CFO of the Pac-12 Conference and spent 17 years with the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee, including as CFO. Earlier in her career, she held finance and leadership roles with IMG and began her career with Ernst & Young. She is a graduate of Miami University.

Morane is also active in the Colorado Springs community through service on several local nonprofit boards, including as the current chair of the Pikes Peak United Way board of directors. Morane lives in Colorado Springs and enjoys skiing, hiking, camping, gardening, and cheering on the Denver Summit FC.
