Meet Caren Goldberg

Ms. Goldberg has experience working with children in many capacities, including 13 years in the classroom with 1st through 5th graders, as a ski instructor, and as a camp counselor. She comes to CSS from New York City and loves taking advantage of the beautiful landscape Colorado Springs has to offer.

Meet Lisa Hughes

Ms. Hughes loves working with students on reader's theater! She has a BA in math and an MA in curriculum and instruction with an emphasis on gifted and talented teaching. She has been the Learning Specialist at CSS for nine years, with many more years of experience teaching students.

What to Expect

Camp Reading Rocks will combine innovative lessons with an engaging summer camp atmosphere. Students will enjoy poetry, literacy scavenger hunts, and outdoor crafts while focusing on fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension instruction. As a culminating activity, students will enjoy miniature golf, a Reader's Theater performance, and a picnic at Monument Valley Park.

What to Bring

- Full water bottle
- Healthy snack
- Favorite book
- Sneakers/closed-toe shoes
- A positive attitude

Camp Waiver Form

I, _____,
the parent of _____,
do hereby release The Colorado Springs School and its camp employees from all claims on account of injury, which may be sustained by my child while attending Camp Reading Rocks.

If medical attention is required for injury or illness while at camp, I give permission for such medical care. Also, I know it's my responsibility as a parent to have primary insurance to cover my child's activities.

In addition, it is my responsibility to determine my child's fitness level and whether it is adequate for participation in camp. It's also my responsibility to guarantee that my child has the proper attire necessary for camp, and I will notify the staff in the case of an absence.
